PADS PROFESSIONAL - FREE Evaluation and Special Promotion

Dear Sir or Madam,

Do you want to find out all about what the future of PADS looks like? Maybe you always wanted to know what the next generation of PADS feels like? Now is your chance.

Even the most demanding designer will agree that PADS Professional packs technologies that will speed your design cycles and produce more reliable products - for example:

- Rigid-flex PCB design
- Sketch router (for DDR interfaces and high-speed serial interfaces)
- Concurrent 2D / 3D layout
- Hierarchical component placement with route planner
- and many more

Are you ready to discover how PADS Professional can improve your product design process?

Right now, we are offering a free, 14-day evaluation of PADS Professional

You will receive access to the fully functional software and supporting files, including video tutorials, to help you get started. [/B]

Why not try PADS Professional today and then about the special promotion - available for a limited time only.

If you have any questions about PADS Professional or the evaluation, contact us.

You may also want to visit our website, where you will find the dates of our public workshops and trainings. We offer these as online and in-house training as well, please contact us to discuss your individual requirements.
